League Ris Opinions at Wellattended Meeting.

Charles A Reynolds, of the Department of Justice, and formerly Governor of Albay Province, Philippine Islands, to which office he was elected by the Fillplan voters of the province, delivered an address or "American Occupation of the Philippines," before the Washington Sectuar League, at its weekly meeting at Pythian Temple yesterday afternoon.

The address was based largely on experience and first-hand information, galaged by the speaker as an official and resident among the Filipinos. and for this resident among the Filipinos and address or more qualified to go to Congress and make our laws." He held that the United States cannot left the islands go, but must hold them and develop them. When, after due training, the people of the islands are sufficiently qualified, he was in favor of granting them independence if they desired it. He stated that a large proportion of the Filipinos also look at the matter in this way.

Following the address the subject was further discussed by Gen. Daggett, formerly connected with the American army in the Filipinos also look at the matter in this way.

J. J. Shirley, Donald Macpherson, Proc. E. C. Kenney, and President H. C. Kirk. In general there was agreement with the position of Mr. Reynolds as to the question of the independence of the Philippires and the duty of the United States with respect to the development and training of the Filipinos. There were a number of criticisms, however, and these were replied to in a rejoinder by Mr. Reynolds closing the discussion.

The speaker admitted that the Philipinos are address or and contended that fairness required that credit should be given the defended the Friar lands, purchase negotiated by Grov. Gen. Tart, which had been criticised, and contended that fairness required that credit should be given the defended the Friar lands, purchase negotiated to drinking beer and other intoxicants, and declared that the one brewery in the islands derives its revenue from the Americans and no

DOMINICA IS QUIET.

Domingo City After Cruise. W. T. S. Deyle, one of the special cor of the United States to the Dominican republic, reported to the State Department yesterday his return to Santo Domingo City after a cruise to the north Domingo City after a cruise to the north coast of the republic. Mr. Doyle and Gen. McIntyre, his colleague, made the cruise on the naval transport Prairie.

Mr. Doyle stated that no marines had been landed from the Prairie at any of the places visited. The Prairie looked in at Samans Bay, where rebels had been reported active, and at Puerto Plata, which had been threatened by the revolutionists. However, it is presumed that which had been threatened by the revo-lutionists. However, it is presumed that all was found quiet at Puerto Plata, as the Prairie remained there but five hours. A final clearing up of the Dominican situation will be accomplished by the American commissioners in a short time, it is expected. Part of their programme already has been announced, including the announcement by President Victoria that he will retire July 1, 1914.

EXISTENCE OF THE SOUL.

Dr. W. W. Baker Talks to Thee sophical Society on Subject. "Proof of the Existence of the Soul" was the subject of a lecture delivered by ciety at the Corcoran Building yester day.

Dr. Baker stated that by experiments made by the Society for Physical Research it has been shown that expression of consciousness in the human being does not selected the second of the second sciousness in the human being does not depend upon the quality or even upon the active functioning of the physical brain, as he said had been claimed by a representative of the Bible Students' Association in a recent lecture.

Dr. Baker rehearsed the evidence afforded by subjects in the dream and trance states of the transcendental nature of thought, and said that by control of mind it is possible to obtain personal proof of the existence of the soul. He de-

M. C. A. Assembly Hears Addre by W. C. Pearce on Man's Environments.

"It's the most natural thing in the world that this man Schrank should try to kill Col. Roosevelt," declared W. C. Pearce, associate general secretary of the International Sunday School Asso-ciation, yesterday at the Sunday after-noon assembly of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Christian Association.

"Born in a foreign country, introduced into a saloon atmosphere at the age of nine, and kept there for twenty-six years, why shouldn't he?" Mr. Pearce asked. "Isn't that the ideal breeding place for vice and crime? What else could you expect? I don't wonder that one man is crasy; my only marvel is that 10,000 men like Schrank are sane. I don't wonder that he did the deed. I wonder only that it is not attempted every day."

In another connection, Mr. Pearce said:

every day."
In another connection, Mr. Pearos said:
"Hell? Of course I believe in it. In fact, I don't know what we'd do without it. Like the old German in the story:
'Iff der vossn't a hell, I'd be willing to gontribute $50 to start von.' If we haven't a hell, what adequate punishment could be meted out to white slavers?"

Mr. Pearce is in the city to attend the nineteenth annual convention of the the nineteenth annual convention of the Sunday School Association of the District of Columbia, which convenes to-day and holds sessions until Thursday.
